Evangelization

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary time

Luke 7:36-8:3

“He said to her, ‘Your sins are forgiven . . . Your faith has saved you; go in peace.’”

The Pharisees fastidiously observed the dietary and cleanliness laws of Moses and wore garments that set them apart from other people. They considered themselves superior to others who did not act and dress like them, or who committed what they considered to be a sin. The Pharisee who hosted Jesus confronted him when a woman the Pharisee considered to be sinful, anointed Jesus with oil and wet his feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. Jesus does not call the Pharisee a sinner, but tells about a creditor who forgives two debtors, one who owed a large amount, one a small. He asks which would love the creditor more. The Pharisee squeamishly admits, “the one whose larger debt was forgiven.” It is tempting to be critical of the Pharisee. But, are we sometimes like the Pharisee? The difference between the woman and the Pharisee is that she demonstrated awareness and sorrow for her sins, and her faith in Jesus; he did not seem to be aware of his sinfulness or the need for forgiveness. Are we like the woman or the Pharisee?

Prayer Intentions

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Loving and Gracious God, Father of all, you bless your people in every time and season and provide for their needs through your providential care. Your Church is continually in need of priests, sisters and brothers to offer themselves in the service of the Gospel by lives of dedicated love. Open the hearts of your sons and daughters to listen to your call in their lives. Give them the gift of understanding to discern your invitation to serve you and your Church. Give them the gift of courage to follow your call. May they have the spirit of young Samuel who found fulfillment in his life when he said to you, "Speak Lord, for your servant is listening." We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

SIMPLY BINDING PRAYER

In the name of Jesus Christ, I bind and reject any spirits that are coming against me at this time. In particular, I bind the spirits of (...name them according to what you are feeling... a few names may be-anger, fear, anxiety, division, games, lust, sloth, etc...) In the holy and powerful name of Jesus, I command you to go immediately and directly to the foot of the Cross, for you have no more power over me. In the name of Jesus, I bind you. In the name of Jesus, I bind you. In the name of Jesus, I bind you. Amen. Amen. Amen.

HURRICANE PRAYER

Our father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us from all harm during this hurricane season and protect us and our homes from all disasters. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.

BISCO SWIMMING PROGRAM SUMMER 2016

The City of Thibodaux has agreed to give BISCO slots for this summer's recreation swimming program. All slots will be for the first and second session. The first session will be held June 6 thru June 24 and the second session is July 5 thru July 22. Each child/student will be required to read 10 books and complete a book report on each book. Youth may read books from the library or their church library and are encouraged to join the summer reading program at the local library. Youth should be selected from each of the individual congregations and must be at least 6 years old. They should be low-income youth who would otherwise not be able to attend lessons. It is necessary that the parents/guardians agree that they will see that the children read the ten books, complete 10 book reports, and provide transportation to see that the children attend all three weeks of lessons. Please see Ms. Barbara Johnson for more information.

C.E.N.T.S (COASTAL ENTREPRENEURS' NET TO SUCCESS)

C.E.N.T.S will be offering the Small Business Course beginning in June through Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux. This course is free and is designed to help people who are interested in starting a small business. It will be held one evening a week for nine weeks. A different business topic will be discussed each week. Anyone who is interested in participating may call Brooks Lirette at 876-0490 to schedule an orientation appointment.
